

FROMAGE CHAUD, is a duo featuring Linda Kitchin and Darcy North. Linda is a dazzling string player, playing the mandolin, violin and guitar as well as sings. Darcy is a virtuoso accordion musician and together they are an excellent choice for any event.

This duo has already had a number of interesting performances: playing at the Beakerhead Festival at the Centre for the Performing Arts, The Water Valley Celtic Music Festival, The Chinese Downtown Street Festival, various clubs and cafes, numerous private parties, corporate events, weddings, and other venues where they can showcase their incredible repertoire of world beat, dance, jazz, and blues.

Linda and Darcy have known each other for many years, playing together in “Take the Oy Train” and “Sheer Musica”. This where they decided to form “Fromage Chaud” in 2012. Linda has played in “Stealth”, a Celtic band, “Roots and Boots”, a country folk and western band, “The Amazing Kitchin Band” and “Conor’s Revenge” both which were Folk-Celtic fusion bands. Darcy has worked in “Dance Calgary’s Orquestra Libertango” and “Arthur Lapp’s German Knights”

Here you’ll find the talent, versatility charm and one great show.

(This band bio may be used in part or whole)